

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

Democracy can only thrive where divergent ideas are freely and openly discussed. That cannot possibly happen if you allow a loosening of the rules that protect diversity.